Buffalo Restaurant Week

Hey, we're glad you found us! Welcome to Buffalo Local Restaurant Week at The Eagle House. This fun city wide event occurs twice a year and offers a showcase of Buffalo's claim to fame... all of its unique cuisines at locally owned independent restaurants. Visit an old favorite, discover someplace new, it's the best week to experience everything all while enjoying some very special deals! The reason for creating Local Restaurant Week was to get people out and enjoying the experience at different venues, with that in mind, all courses are for in person dining (no takeout available). We try to keep it simple, so sorry, No substitutions or altering the specials. We also serve our dinner menu if the restaurant week specials are not your thing. Menu subject to change.

We're open Tuesday through Saturday and offering Buffalo Restaurant Week menu specials AT DINNER ONLY
